

Keep K-Love

K-Love has been a very important element in my life. I have become a much stronger person, let alone a better Christian, because of K-Love radio. Eliminating K-Love from the radio would have diverse effect on the worldview of children, adolescences, and adults.

Keeping K-Love in the local community will continue to help our community grow rich with values, integrity, and love.